

Term 4: Year 8 curriculum.

English: to what extent does the media influence our understanding of 21st century society?

Maths: percentages, using time and calendar information, angle rules and geometric shapes.

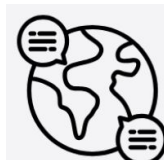

Science: how do we extract materials?
If plants were to die, what would happen?

Geography: do countries need to look after each other and the world?

History: the Transatlantic slave trade.

Languages: clothes and shopping.

Computer science: Python programming.

Art: how can artists reinterpret the work of the past?

Drama: how can history help shape new drama?

Music: reggae music. Playing riffs, chords and a baseline.

Food technology: applying the principles of health and nutrition to practical cooking.

Design technology: design and create a bird feeder.

PE: How are advanced skills and tactics applied in rugby/ gymnastics? How do you test the components of fitness?

Character education: how can I responsibly express who I am?